Why are so many PV module manufacturers threatening to shut down?

A growing number of PV module manufacturers are threatening to shut down their production facilities in Europe due to the ongoing low-price trend. Some want to give up, while others want to move to the United States, where there are supposedly better market and funding conditions.

Are module prices going up?

After remaining flat early in the year, module prices have started rising for the first time in more than two years. The increase is affecting all technology classes, including high-efficiency modules, but the change in that category remains too small to register on price charts. That is likely to shift soon.

In February 2024, PV Index reading for monofacial module price remained at 0.124 EUR/ W, supported by elevated shipping prices (due to Red Sea crisis) and shortages in the module power classes for C& I installations. This has allowed for the bifacial module prices to catch up with monofacials, after dropping 8% from 0.135 EUR/ W in January to 0. ...
